Two footsore, unhappy, horny young guys are walking along a dark, deserted back road one Saturday night, when one turns to the other and says, "Next time we pick up a couple of girls and you tell 'em to put out or get out, make sure we're in our car!"

Irene and Eddie get married, and on their wedding night they're undressing in the bedroom of their hotel honeymoon suite. Eddie stops and says to his lovely blonde bride, "Honey, I want to get something across to you." Then he removes his pants and hands them to her. "Put these on," Irene takes the pants but says, "I can't wear them."

Eddie says, "Right. That shows who'll be wearing the pants in this family."

Irene says, "Wait a minute," takes off her sexy panties, hands them to Eddie and says, "Here, put these on." Eddie takes the tiny panties and says, "But I can't get into these."

"Right," says Irene, "and you won't until you change your attitude."

Tom was a "workaholic," working overtime every night and neglecting his wife. And his neighbors kept telling him about the guys they saw going in and out of his apartment all day. Tom didn't believe them until one day he went home early. There was his lovely wife, wearing a sexy nightgown, with romantic music playing on the stereo and two glasses of champagne on the coffee table.

"So, you are cheating on me!" Tom shouted, and began wildly searching the apartment for the lover. Hearing a noise in the kitchen, Tom ran in and saw a guy climbing out the window. Outraged, Tom picked up the refrigerator and threw it at the lover, and both lover and refrigerator fell ten floors to the street. Tom promptly had a heart attack from the exertion and died.

At the gates of heaven, the lover was refused admission by St. Peter, who said, "You were messing around with a married woman." But the lover said, "No, honest, I was . . . just repairing the kitchen sink." Peter believed him and admitted him.

Then Tom requested admission, but St. Peter said, "No, you killed a man." But Tom said, "I just couldn't help myself—temporary insanity." So St. Peter allowed him to enter heaven.

A third man stepped up and asked to go in, and St. Peter said, "Where did you come from? What are you doing here?"

"Beats me. I was sitting inside a refrigerator, minding my own business, when suddenly. . . ."

Sam: "What would you do if you came home and caught a guy fuckin' your wife?"

Lenny: "I'd break his white cane and shoot his seeing-eye dog."

Freddie and his wife were at the zoo one afternoon, and Freddie steered her over to where a monstrous male gorilla was standing in his cage.

"Hey, show him your tit," said Freddie, and his wife lifted her T-shirt and exposed one of her big breasts. The gorilla snarled. Then Freddie said, "Show him both tits," and his wife exposed her other big breast. The gorilla snarled louder and beat his chest. So Freddie said, "Now show him your pussy." And his wife lifted her skirt, slipped down her panties and flashed. The gorilla's huge cock was now stiff, and he was grunting and stroking away.

Freddie grabbed his wife, shoved her into the cage, and said, "There, bitch, tell him you've got a headache!"

Unhappy over his virginal status, Bernie was getting a little drunk and moaning to his friend, Jack, about not being able to score. Jack thought it would be fun to play a joke on Bernie, so he said, "Hey, I can fix you up with a chick right now. Stay here, I'll be right back."

Jack went home, took his plastic "love doll" out of the closet, inflated her and put her in bed under the covers. Then he ran back to the bar and said to Bernie, "It's all set. Go over to my place and get into bed with the girl who's there. But don't turn on the lights, since she's very shy."

Bernie did as he was told, and the next day he telephoned Jack to tell him about his experience. "It was fuckin' crazy. I did like you said, left the lights off and all, then got into bed with the chick. I bit her on the tit—and she blew this incredible fart and went flying out the window!"

—William F. Thurmond

Charlie, who was just five feet, two inches tall, is walking down the street when six-foot-eight-inch Larry comes along and says, sneering, "Hiya, short-cock."

"Well, I guess your wife tells you everything, that blabbermouth."

—Sid Mosler
Jersey City, New Jersey

Kevin was known as the laziest man in town. He was so lazy that he married a girl who was already pregnant.

On their wedding night, Bill asked Carole to give him a blowjob, but she refused, indignantly. "You wouldn't respect me, I just know it," she said to him.

"But I would respect you dear, I would."

Months later, Bill again asked Carole for a blowjob and got the same response: "No, you wouldn't respect me."

"But I would, I would."

For years, Bill begs Carole to blow him, but her response is always the same: "You won't respect me." And, to this, Bill always says, "But I would respect you, I would."

Finally, on their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary, Bill asks Carole for a blowjob, and she says, "All right, but I just know you won't respect me later."

"I'll respect you, dear, I will."

So Carole gives Bill a great blowjob.

Later, as they're cuddling in bed, the telephone rings. Bill answers it, then hands the phone to his wife and says, "It's for you, cocksucker."

WENDY

"I like getting men hard." Honest, that's what blonde, blue-eyed Wendy told us when we asked her how she liked her job as the first female trainer at a gym that has only recently gone coed. Sounded like a perfectly good reason to us. "I also like to keep myself in shape, and now I can, since I'm at the gym forty hours a week. So I guess I really love my job. What woman wouldn't? I mean, look at all the potential here. The membership is mostly male, so I have to help work them out when we're busy."

PHOTOGRAPHY BY MICHAEL ANCHER

"A gym is a great place for a woman to work. I can take a so-so looking guy, work with him, and turn him into a real hunk. While I'm doing that, I also work on his endurance. That's very important."

Wendy didn't do a whole lot for our endurance, especially when she told us what she really likes most about her job. "I find that a gym is a very sexy place. All these scantily clad bodies and all this masculinity. Sometimes I get hot flashes just watching some of these guys."

"I even like the smell of the gym. For some reason, a sweaty guy really gets my juices flowing, and I have to stop myself from fantasizing too much on the job—that has to wait till I get home. But looking at men's bodies all day long gives me an awful lot to fantasize about." Looking at Wendy's body all day long gave us a lot to dream about too. Where do we sign up?

BEVERLY SPADAVECCHIA

BAYVILLE, NEW JERSEY

In other national beauty pageants, it has become traditional for the reigning queen to introduce the new winner. Unfortunately, our 1983 Grand Prize winner, Beverly Spadavecchia, wasn't available at press time (she's out in California, busily pursuing a new career), but we can give you this brief flash from the past before we introduce you to our new 1984 Grand Prize winner.

guide to erotic photography

Cropping is the secret to creating a fantastic picture of a fantastic subject. In this case our subject is not only fantastic—she is our annual "Friends and Lovers" $5,000-prize-winning centerfold. Randi's near-perfect face can be photographed well from any angle. She also has a vivacious personality which is projected to the viewer in nearly every photo. Starting with the "face shot" or portrait on the following page, every photo in the centerfold was cropped, either by the photographer while shooting, or by our Art Department during layout. The portrait shot was cropped in the camera by shooting with a zoom lens at a relatively short distance. This allows the photographer to fill the negative with the subject, excluding other elements which might distract the viewer. The same effect can be achieved during printing by enlarging only that portion of the slide or negative which has the greatest impact on the viewer. Check page 64 for additional photo tips, and start turning out photos of your friend or lover to enter in our $30,000 "Friends and Lovers" contest. Before you shoot, flip to page 112 for complete details of our contest and an official entry blank.

GUIDE TO PHOTOGRAPHY

Shooting a model as beautiful as Randi is easy in one way, but very hard in another. Since she looks so good in every pose, it is easy to just keep on shooting and end up with a collection of very nice pictures—and no really exceptional shots. Our photographer avoided this trap by carefully selecting props, clothes and poses which accentuate Randi's fantastic shape and flawless features. This obviously took a great deal of effort on the photographer's part, but the result is worth it. Many of the most effective techniques are so simple that they may not be obvious to most viewers, even though they can appreciate the results.

In photo A, Randi stretches out on her stomach wearing a garter belt and a sheer top. The waistband of the garter belt emphasizes her exceptionally small waist. The taut garter stretches in a straight line from the waistband to her stocking top. This straight white line across Randi's tan thigh, the top of her stockings, and the waistband, together create a frame that draws the viewer's eye to the real focal point of the picture—Randi's magnificent behind. This shot was taken with a Series E 75-150mm Nikkor zoom lens at f/8 on Kodachrome 64.

Our super centerfold is an excellent example of the skill of a top-notch photographer. The little 35mm slide was enlarged more than 190 times its original size to produce the picture in the fold-out. Unless the slide is exceptionally sharp and clear, the enlargement will break down and the model's skin tones will be blotchy and uneven. To achieve the clarity we got here, our photographer used a 105mm Nikkor lens set at f/22. Kodachrome 64 is used by most professionals for nudes, but when a giant enlargement is planned, many photographers switch to Kodachrome 25 because it has finer grain. But, in this case, our expert used 64—and the results justify his faith in Nikkor lenses.

Keep shooting, and as you improve, keep sending your photos to our "Friends and Lovers" contest. Check page 112 for our entry form and see if you can't collect some of that $30,000 we spend to keep you working at the sexiest hobby ever.

The series of photos B, C, D, E, F indicate how important a model's mood is to a successful shooting session. Perfectly at ease with a glass of wine, Randi relaxed on the couch and on the floor next to the coffee table. She obviously enjoyed herself, talking and sipping her drink while our photographer kept shooting. The result was a great series of pictures that projects a warm, sensual image of our model. (There were so many excellent shots in this series that it was difficult for us to decide which to use and which to discard.) This entire sequence was shot with an 85mm Nikkor lens at f/11 on Kodachrome 64.

1984 $5,000 friends & lovers GRAND PRIZE WINNER

RANDI HALSTEAD
TEMPE, ARIZONA

You've heard it before, but we'll say it again: Nice things come in small packages. Take Randi. At five foot one, she's no bigger than a mini. As she's not screaming, wailing, or howling, you'll just find it's a girl people sometimes tend to overlook you or overlook you. But Randi prides herself on both her self-sufficiency and her ability to stand out in a crowd. "I like to meet new people," she says. "The more the merrier." Well, Randi, meet the readership of Genesis magazine. They'd all like to be friends with you.

PHOTOGRAPHY BY J. STEVEN HICKS

Of the hundreds of beautiful girls whose photographs are submitted each year for consideration in the "Friends & Lovers" competition, only one may reign supreme as the crème de la crème. This year's winner rose to the top with her winsome good looks and beguiling ways. "I used to be ashamed of my body," she told us. (Randi owns a compact model, measuring 32-22-32.) But typical of her approach to life, she conquered her shame with direct confrontation. "Topless dancing," she reports, "has given me a good deal of self-confidence."

Raised in Arizona, where the air is clear and the spaces wide open, Randi loves to travel but, like most travel lovers, says there is no place like home.

Sure, the city's a nice place to visit, but, "It's nice to be able to get up in the morning and see the sky. And besides, smog gives me a headache."

Outdoor activities are close to her heart. Litterbugs incur her wrath. Both sentiments are even more understandable when you know her fantasy.

In the deep green woods, Randi pictures herself with her one true love, making love. "We are all alone in the woods, the only two people who matter."

At 27, Randi's never been married, but she'd like to settle down. If you're honest but not judgmental, liberal but family-oriented, maybe you could apply "And," says Randi, "blue eyes would be nice."

"Boy, after all that excitement, I'm really looking forward to a good night's sleep."

CARMEN

Her name is Carmen MacKillroy.
Where'd she get a name like that? From a Mexican mother and an Irish-American father, that's where. He was a college boy on vacation in Mexico, she was a beautiful dancer. They fell in love, got married, and then split up shortly after Carmen was born.
"I was raised in Mexico, as a Mexican. But as the old saying goes, blood will tell. And sometimes I just feel Irish. But don't ask me to explain that feeling." Carmen now lives in California, where she is following in her mother's footsteps, literally, as a dancer. "I enjoy dancing but only before a live audience. I've done television shows, a few films, but I love applause."

PHOTOGRAPHY BY MICHEL MOREAU

Carmen performs as a Mexican dancer and as what she calls an "erotic performer." She enjoys both types of work. "Both are art forms, both utilize the human body."

Carmen enjoys both types of applause: the polite, restrained applause from those who appreciate the art of ethnic dancing, and the other kind.

"I love to excite men with my dancing—with my body. With ethnic dance I do that subtly; with erotic dance, I excite them with blatant sexuality, in the nude, teasingly."

Which does Carmen enjoy most? "I must admit that erotic dancing is the most fun—and gets the most applause, whistles, hoots, and sexual remarks about my body"

We were interested to know if Carmen feels Irish or Mexican when she's dancing. "I feel Mexican when I'm performing as an ethnic dancer. When I'm dancing nude in a smoky bar with a couple of hundred horny guys watching, I feel like a woman, a desirable, beautiful woman. And that's a universal feeling."

"It's like this, loverboy . . . I'm having a sale, and I need about 100 invitations . . ."

PAMELA

Pamela has always been what we call an "all-American girl." But now she's changing her image. "I was an honest-to-goodness all-American girl—a cheerleader in my small-town high school, homecoming queen in college, popular, Miss Goody Two-Shoes. And what did it get me? Dates with a lot of boring, nice-guy, all-American boys. I thought I'd never lose my virginity." Pamela finally achieved that important goal during a vacation visit to New York. "I was overwhelmed—in more ways than one—and it was wonderful."

PHOTOGRAPHY BY DONALD H. MILNE

Pamela met a guy she describes as a "scruffy-looking type who coked like a hippie who'd been asleep since the early sixties." He took her to a party in a Soho loft, and things happened. He turned out to be a rich businessman.

"That night was wild, like a dream, and it sure turned my head around—see, I'm talking like a different person. The 'scruffy' guy had made millions in computers, and he helped me get started as an actress, and I'm going after those mean, bitchy roles on the TV soap operas. No more Ms. Nice Girl." Pamela is only mean and bitchy at work. Actually, she's still just a sweet, all-American girl from a small town. We think.

OVER $30,000 IN CASH AND PRIZES!

RANEL G.

23, operations officer
Fair Oaks, California
Photographed by her friend, Sam

This beautiful blonde likes "drawing, snowskiing, and bicycling," but for excitement she lists "skydiving and traveling." Presumably, when Ranel travels, she uses conventional means, like cars or planes. But she's none too conventional, so who knows? For more on this high-flying, self-proclaimed "old-fashioned" girl, see her winning layout.

VONDA H.

23, topless dancer
Ferguson, Missouri

Photographed by her husband, David

Good-looking men with bedroom eyes who are witty and sure of themselves drive Vonda crazy. Her fantasy is "to rent a motel and find out how many men I can take on in a row." She loves to turn men on. "I also love two men at a time 'cause it turns me on having my husband watch me get fucked."

Share the charms of your favorite lady with us. Each entrant whose picture is published in the monthly "Friends & Lovers" section receives $50, plus a chance to win $750 as a monthly winner and the $5,000 Grand Prize. We'll accept any type of photograph, but please send slides for the best quality of reproduction. See contest rules and entry blank on page 112.

LOIS G.

39, housewife and seamstress
Snow Camp, North Carolina
Photographed by her husband, Ray

Hiking, softball, the NFL, the beach: If it's outdoors and it's rugged, Lois likes it. That's probably why she loves country music—and why her favorite fantasy stars "Willie Nelson on a cold and snowy evening in a secluded mountain cabin with a fireplace." Her sexual philosophy is "anything goes." Are ya listenin', Willie?

LINDA M.

32, housewife
Youngstown, Ohio
Photographed by her husband, Tony

A majestic six-footer, Linda loves the outdoors, "from dogsledding with my two Siberian huskies, to posing nude at a quiet beach." (Presumably without the huskies.) She's a fan of boxer Boom Boom Mancini, and quite a knockout herself. "I've lived most of my fantasies," the hazel-eyed blonde tells us, "but lately I have fantasized about seducing a young, unsuspecting virgin guy." Why-o-why-o, did we ever leave Ohio?

SUSAN B.

34, dental technician
Omaha, Nebraska
Photographed by her husband, Richard

A happy homebody who also likes to party, pretty Susan says, "My favorite fantasy is to feel free to do whatever turns me on in a moment of crazy impulsiveness . . . and to share it and enjoy it without fear of recrimination. I've done it lots of times!" Describing herself as very liberal sexually, she says wisely, "That's just an intellectual way of saying 'sex ought to be fun.' Nothing wrong with that, is there?" You're asking us?

SANDY R.

18, model

Atlanta, Georgia

Photographed by her friend, Jim

This strawberry blonde dreams of a career in show biz: singing, dancing, acting, or any combination thereof. "I enjoy just about everything as far as sex and life go," she says. "I like a man with muscles and sensitivity—sexy, kinky, ready to try anything." With an attitude (and a body) like that, you should have Hollywood at your feet soon, Sandy.

CHERYL B.

21, housewife

Newnan, Georgia

Photographed by her husband, Athen

Chicago-born Cheryl's become a rough-and-tumble Dixie belle. "I enjoy NFL football games, wrestling, drag racing, and Harley Davidsons," she says, "and weightlifting is what keeps this five-foot-two, 103-pound body in shape. More than anything, I love being married and pleasing my man." More than anything, we're pleased your old man likes to take pictures.

LINDA J.

31, contractor

Citrus Heights, California

Photographed by her husband, Jerry

Hardworking Linda is an outdoors girl who puts in long hours as a landscape contractor. Her idea of a perfect weekend starts by setting up camp on Friday, then fishing all day Saturday and playing golf Sunday. She is turned on by a man—her husband—who takes control and dominates her during lovemaking. Sounds like Linda knows what she wants and works at it.

JONG H.

36, cashier

Scott AFB, Illinois

Photographed by her husband, Steve

A native of Thailand, tiny Jong packs a powerful 33-23-32 figure on a miniature chassis of just four feet, nine and a half inches, and 90 pounds. She likes her men tall—at least six feet—with “money to spend freely,” because she also likes traveling, night clubs, and dancing till dawn. “I love posing in the nude and wearing sexy, revealing clothes,” she says matter-of-factly, “because I have a great little body.”

Matter of fact, she's right.

CHRIS M.

23, floral designer

San Antonio, Texas

Photographed by her husband, Marty

Housewife and floral designer, Chris fantasizes about month-long camping trips with her husband and “making love in the warm sunshine under open skies.” Raised with “strong moral values,” she puts pleasing her husband in and out of bed as her top priority. Let's hear it for Chris.

PAULINA W.

30, nurse

Palm Desert, California

Photographed by her husband, Lawrence

Medical school figures in her future, but in the meantime, Paulina likes dancing, ballet, and “making love in the front seat of a Mercedes 450SL with the top down.” As you may have guessed, “good-looking, muscular men who enjoy spending money” are just her type. And the Palm Springs resort where she lives makes the perfect playground.

FAIR OAKS, CALIFORNIA

How ya gonna keep 'em down on the farm?
When they look like Ranel, you ain't. "I lived on a ranch most of my life," says this month's winner, a five-foot-six blonde, "and I love being around horses. I am down-to-earth and a little old-fashioned." That may well be true, but how many down-to-earth types do you know who also like skydiving? Ranel's feet may be on the ground, but her head is always cloud-bound. For instance, her favorite fantasy is "making love in a balloon while we are flying over the mountains." Up, up, and away.

A perfect weekend for Ranel also happens high up: "We are alone in a cabin way up in the mountains, with a fire blazing and lots of champagne on ice."

Life doesn't have to be nonstop excitement for this California girl. She can be perfectly content lying on the beach with her drawing pads, or bicycling alone.

The contradictions she seems to present do not confuse twenty-four-year-old Ranel a bit. Rather, by pursuing her opposite desires—up and down, fire and ice, rough and tender—she has found a fullness and a chance for her own happiness in a world too often confused by too many options.

So the long and the short of it is that Ranel lives her life with a quiet excitement, a tender roughness, and an icy fire. If any category hems her in, she just redefines that category until it suits her. All of which makes her unique. All of which makes her like most women. All of which explains why some men find women hard to understand. We hope Ranel has helped you guys to "get it."
